PADRE WHITE SUNDAY

On Sunday 21st April 2024 we celebrate Padre White Sunday.

Padre White began the day with a Holy Eucharist at dawn, the time that the convoys left in 1914. Following that service, he led parishioners to the summit of Mount Clarence, where they watched a wreath tossed by a boatman into the King George Sound float out to sea. Padre White believed that "Anyone could lay a wreath on a monument, but here was something beautiful about dropping the wreath in the sea in memory of all those who made their last contact with Australia here." We continue that tradition and honour the legacy of Padre White.

PLEASE NOTE THE DIFFERENT SUNDAY SERVICE TIMES

6.00am Holy Communion Dawn Service
 Followed by a walk (or drive) to Padre White's lookout for prayers and placing of wreath in the sound.

9.30am Holy Communion

Morning tea will be available before and after the 9.30am service.
